

9 Tips for Parents to Enhance a Child's Classroom Experience

1. Communicate to your child classroom responsibilities and proper behavioral guidelines.
2. Pray for your child's class.
3. Have your child prepared—make sure he or she is on time, has been fed, has used the bathroom, has a Bible, etc.
4. Show gratitude for your child's teachers.
5. Help your child understand what is being taught and apply lesson truths during the week.
6. Encourage your child to complete any assignments, memory work, and other action steps.
7. When your child expresses a concern (for example, "I'm bored" or "The kids pick on me"), get the teacher's perspective and consider observing the class for a day.
8. Understand the needs of the larger class, as well as the needs of your child.
9. Pick up your child on time.

—By Jill Nelson, copyright ©2018 Truth78, www.Truth78.org

9 Tips for Parents to Enhance a Child's Classroom Experience

1. Communicate to your child classroom responsibilities and proper behavioral guidelines.
2. Pray for your child's class.
3. Have your child prepared—make sure he or she is on time, has been fed, has used the bathroom, has a Bible, etc.
4. Show gratitude for your child's teachers.
5. Help your child understand what is being taught and apply lesson truths during the week.
6. Encourage your child to complete any assignments, memory work, and other action steps.
7. When your child expresses a concern (for example, "I'm bored" or "The kids pick on me"), get the teacher's perspective and consider observing the class for a day.
8. Understand the needs of the larger class, as well as the needs of your child.
9. Pick up your child on time.

—By Jill Nelson, copyright ©2018 Truth78, www.Truth78.org